

Mission Statement

To support our members with the tools and education necessary to conduct their business successfully, professionally, and with the highest ethical standards.

RPAC Auction

Each day a Realtor faces challenges that can make it difficult to run a successful business. Sometimes, the source of these challenges can be government policies. You can make a difference for yourself and people in the community by investing in RPAC. You can pledge online at SGARealtors.org under the member links tab. There is going to be an online auction Sept. 6-12. If you wish to donate items for the auction, contact Katie at the association office. An email link will be sent out closer to the auction, so you can bid on some great stuff!
